

Stations which air
blatant political advertising under the guise of a
documentary ought to be severely
penalized. This sort of behavior
undermines democracy
and is akin to
false advertising.
Companies can be
penalized for false advertising. Why
doesn't this apply
to Sinclair's
actions?
